

Sarah Grieveson

Sarah Grieveson has been director of the LOHP's River Link Appeal since it was launched in 2004. Since then she has raised £450,000 to help fund a wide range of the project's activities. She has been a freelance fundraiser for fifteen years, raising over £3million for charities, mostly in East Anglia. Brought up on the edge of the Waveney/Little Ouse fens, Sarah has a particular soft spot for the LOHP and its work to look after the valley's very special landscape and wildlife.'
